23 September 2024

Dear: Shareholders, Tenants & Clerks

CCL has received the attached update in relation to construction at the Reserve Bank building site. This is the first update since work was paused at the RBA site some time ago, the attached information has only just been received, it appears that the scope of work and the program have been substantially modified.

CCL will be working with its own consultants and the Strata Management team in Windeyer Chambers to determine the impact that the revised scope of work will have on Shareholders & Tenants throughout CCL's buildings.

There will be further updates and information to come.

Kind Regards,
Debbie George
CEO
